SKILLS:

Work in a fast paced environment and very adaptable to change:

Proven whilst photographing fast action sports, natural disaster, students and groups at formals, as well as during my career as an international pilot, for the past 36 years, including flying Lockheed Hercules, in Angola, during the civil war or when I rescued a Boeing 747 from Kuwait, when it was under threat of rocket attack.

Ability to work unsupervised:

Applied when meeting photographic and writing deadlines or as complex as flying a sophisticated Boeing 747-400 transoceanic, as a captain.

CUSTOMER SERVICE SKILLS:

A true believer in effective communications and chain of command or corporate hierarchy. A true believer in resource management, especially demonstrated as an airline captain with a crew of eighteen to manage.

COMPETENCIES:

Competent with Photoshop, Lightroom, Capture NX, et al.

Tech savvy, can work with either Microsoft or Apple operating systems

Familiar with Nikon and Hassleblad (Digital and Film) systems

QuarkXpress Desktop Publishing software; design and layout

Internationally published Photographer 1992 – Present

Passengers always appreciate the “extra” effort and attention to small details a pilot would give to preflight inspection of an aircraft. That same attention to detail translates to photography.

International Pilot, 1978 – 2014

Former captain of Boeing 747 and 737 aircraft. Have flown 130 aircraft. Flying 16,674 hours. Flown to six of the seven continents, forty-seven countries, and countless times across the Atlantic, Indian, and Pacific Oceans, with a 100% safe flying record throughout my career.

I lived and worked overseas in Angola, China, England, Germany, Hong Kong, Japan, Nigeria, Papua New Guinea, Taiwan, and USA. I observed and adapted to protocol, manners and culture, unique to each country.
